EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends the Act respecting elections and referendums in municipalities to streamline certain procedures and to grant new powers intended to facilitate the process of dividing the territory into electoral districts and the procedure for revising the list of electors.

As regards the process for dividing the territory into electoral districts, the bill eliminates certain transmissions of copies of notices, draft by-laws or by-laws to the Minister of Municipal Affairs or to the Commission de la représentation. It also changes the mandatory content of certain notices required in connection with the dividing of the territory into electoral districts and under the election and referendum procedure.

As regards revision of the list of electors, the bill abolishes filing offices and provides that an application to have a name entered, struck off or corrected must be made directly to a board of revisors. Lastly, the bill makes various amendments to ensure concordance with the Election Act concerning revision of the list of electors.

Where no poll is to be held, the list may be revised by decision of the returning officer.

Where the holding of a poll ceases to be necessary following the end of the period for filing nomination papers, the returning officer shall decide whether the revision is to be continued or interrupted. If he decides to interrupt the revision, he shall give public notice thereof as soon as practicable.

“B — Establishment and functioning of the board of revisors

“114. Each board of revisors shall be composed of three revisors appointed by the returning officer.

The returning officer may be a member of a board.

“115. In the case of a municipality having a population of 100,000 or over, if the council is composed of candidates elected at the last general election from more than one party authorized under Chapter XIII, the returning officer shall appoint as revisors a person recommended by the party which elected the greatest number of candidates and another person recommended by the party which elected the second greatest number of candidates.

In the case of an equal number of candidates being elected from each party, the rank of the parties for the purposes of the first paragraph is established according to the aggregate of the votes obtained by the candidates of each party.

“116. A party shall make its recommendation by means of a writing signed by the leader of the party or by the person designated by him for that purpose and sent to the returning officer within the time prescribed by the returning officer.

The returning officer may, on reasonable grounds, refuse a recommendation made to him. In such a case, he shall fix a time limit for the sending of a new recommendation by the person who sent the recommendation refused.

For the purposes of this section, the word “leader” has the meaning assigned by section 364.

“117. The returning officer shall appoint a person of his choice if the recommendation has not been received within the prescribed time, if the person recommended is not qualified to hold the office or is unable or refuses to do so, or if the party is no longer authorized.

(4) the fact that the information and documents provided for in the second paragraph of section 133 must be provided to the board of revisors upon the making of an application for entry by a person domiciled in the territory of the municipality.

Where the notice is given before the end of the period for filing nomination papers, it may indicate that the list will be revised only if the holding of a poll makes revision mandatory.

“126. Not later than five days before the last day fixed for the making of applications for entry, striking off or correction, the returning officer shall

(1) cause an extract of the list of electors to be revised for a polling subdivision to be distributed to each address in that subdivision, along with the particulars contained in the public notice of revision ;

(2) forward to each person whose name is entered on the list of electors to be revised a notice that reproduces the particulars concerning that person which appear on the list and that includes the particulars contained in the public notice, and cause to be distributed, where he considers it appropriate, to each residential address for which no elector's name is entered on the list of electors to be revised and which is within the territory of the municipality or, as the case may be, the district or ward concerned by the list to be revised, a notice indicating that no electors' names are entered on the list and that includes the particulars contained in the public notice ; or

(3) post in the polling subdivision, at a place of convenient access to the public and protected from bad weather, the extract of the list of electors to be revised for that subdivision, along with the particulars contained in the public notice.

The individual notices to be forwarded pursuant to subparagraph 2 of the first paragraph to persons having the same address may be combined in one notice.

In the case of a municipality governed by the Municipal Code of Québec (chapter C-27.1), the posting required under subparagraph 3 of the first paragraph may be supplemented or replaced by a posting of the whole list of electors to be revised at places where the public notices of the municipality are posted.

No mention of the date of birth of electors shall be made on the list of electors or extract thereof distributed or posted in accordance with this section.

Where several boards of revisors are established, the only particulars provided for in subparagraph 3 of the first paragraph of section 125 that are to accompany the extract distributed or posted under the first paragraph of this section or that are to be included in the notice sent or distributed under that paragraph are the particulars concerning the board responsible for the revision of the part of the list corresponding to the extract or including the name of the person to whom the notice is sent or that would include the name of the elector if a name were entered for the address to which the notice is distributed.

“127. Where the returning officer has reasonable grounds to believe that a person whose name is not entered on the list of electors would be entitled to have it entered thereon, that a person whose name is entered on the list is not entitled to have it entered thereon or that a particular entered in respect of the person is inaccurate, he may notify the person and indicate the procedure to be followed to have his name entered, struck off or corrected, as the case may be.

“128. Any person who finds that his name is not entered on the list of electors when it could be must, if he wishes to exercise his right to vote, apply in person to the competent board of revisors to have his name entered on the list.

Any person who finds that his name is entered on the list of electors when it should not be must appear in person before the competent board of revisors to apply to have his name struck off the list.

Any person who finds that his name is entered on the list of electors when he does not wish to have it entered thereon must appear before the competent board of revisors to apply to have his name struck off the list. He may, if he is domiciled in the territory of the municipality, request that the striking off apply only for the purposes of a municipal poll.

Any person who finds that his name is entered on the list of electors for the wrong domicile, immovable or place of business must appear in person before the competent board of revisors to apply to have the erroneous entry struck off the list and, if he wishes to exercise his right to vote, to have his name entered correctly on the list.

Where two boards are competent to each decide one of the applications referred to in the fourth paragraph, the board before which the first application is made becomes competent to decide the other application. That board shall notify the returning officer of its decision concerning the part of the list that is not within its competence, and the returning officer shall send the notice to the other board.

“129. If an elector whose name is entered on the part of the list of electors for a polling subdivision finds that the name of a person who is not entitled to be entered on that part has been entered thereon, he may apply in person to the competent board of revisors to have the name of that person struck off the list.

“130. An elector shall apply in person to the competent board of revisors to have an error in the entry of his name, address or date of birth corrected.

“131. An application for entry, striking off or correction, other than an application under section 129, may be made by the spouse, including a de facto spouse, or a relative of the person entitled to make the application, or by a person who is cohabiting with the person.

For the purposes of the first paragraph, the word “relative” means a father, mother, grandfather, grandmother, father-in-law or step-father, mother-in-law or step-mother, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, son-in-law or daughter-in-law.

“132. Every application must be made to the board of revisors on the days and at the times fixed by the returning officer.

The returning officer shall ensure that the board holds sittings for the purpose of receiving applications on at least two days, at the latest on the second day before the last day of sittings of the board, including at least once in the evening.

According to whether the returning officer decides that the board shall hold sittings for that purpose in the morning, in the afternoon or in the evening, the board shall sit from at least 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., from 2:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. or from 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m., respectively.

“133. Every application before a board of revisors shall be made under oath.

The board of revisors may require the person making an application to submit to it any proof necessary for the making of a decision. However, in the case of an application to have the name of a person domiciled in the territory of the municipality entered, the board shall require from the person making the application the former address of the domicile of the person in respect of whom the application is being made as well as two documents, one showing the name and birthdate of the person in respect of whom the application is being made, the other showing the name of that person and the address of the person’s domicile.

“134. The board of revisors shall examine the applications made to it as soon as they are received, and shall decide them immediately in all cases where it is possible to do so.

It shall also verify the information provided to its members by the returning officer under section 121.

“135. The board of revisors or any member it authorizes for the purpose may make an inquiry to ascertain whether a person whose name is entered on the list of electors or who is applying to have his name entered thereon is so entitled. The person and any witnesses summoned may be assisted by an advocate.

“136. Where the decision of the board of revisors concerning an application for entry or striking off entails entering or striking off a name for which no application has been made, the board of its own initiative may enter the name or strike it off.

The board may also, of its own initiative, enter or strike off a name or make a correction if, after verifying the information provided to its members by the returning officer under section 121, it decides that a change must be made to the list. Where the board decides that such a change is not warranted, it shall specify that its verification confirmed the accuracy of the information or that it was unable to confirm or refute the accuracy of the information.

Where a correction is made, a name is entered on or struck off a part of the list that is not within the competence of the board, the board shall give notice of its decision to the returning officer who shall transmit the notice to the competent board.

“137. Before striking off or refusing to enter the name of a person, the board of revisors shall give one clear day’s advance notice to the person.

The notice shall be served at the address entered on the list of electors or at any place where the board or the revising officer has reason to believe that the person may be reached.

However, the board is not required to give the notice where

(1) the person is present before the board ;

(2) the board is satisfied with the proof made to it that the person in respect of whom the application for striking off is made is under curatorship or is deceased.

“138. The board of revisors shall transmit its decisions to the returning officer in accordance with the returning officer’s directives.

The returning officer shall incorporate the changes into the list or prepare an abstract of changes.

“139. As soon as practicable after receiving the decisions of the board of revisors, the returning officer shall transmit, free of charge, to each party authorized under Chapter XIII or to each ticket recognized under Division III of this chapter, a copy of the revised list or of an abstract of the changes made to the list submitted to be revised.

The provisions relating to the free distribution of the list of electors to candidates apply, adapted as required, to the revised list and the abstract of changes. However, the returning officer shall transmit free of charge to candidates who have already obtained free copies of the list submitted to be revised an equal number of copies of the revised list or the abstract of changes made to the list, without those candidates having to request the copies.

“140. The returning officer shall communicate to the chief electoral officer the changes made to the list that concern the persons domiciled in the territory of the municipality, in the manner determined by the chief electoral officer.

The returning officer shall also communicate to the chief electoral officer, if the change entails entering the name of a domiciled person, the former address of the domicile of that person and, if the change entails striking off the name of a domiciled person who requests that the striking off apply only for the purposes of a municipal poll, the request made by that person.

Furthermore, the returning officer shall communicate the decisions of the board of revisors made after the verification under the second paragraph of section 134 that do not entail changes to the list.
