EXPLANATORY NOTES

The main object of this bill is to harmonize the fiscal legislation of Québec with that of Canada. It consequently gives effect primarily to various harmonization measures announced in the Budget Speeches delivered by the Minister of State for the Economy and Finance on 31 March 1998 and 9 March 1999.

The bill amends the Taxation Act primarily to make amendments similar to various amendments made to the Canada Income Tax Act by federal Bill C-28 (S.C., 1998, chapter 19), assented to on 18 June 1998. The Taxation Act is also amended to make amendments similar to various amendments made to the Canada Income Tax Act by federal Bill C-72 (S.C., 1999, chapter 22), assented to on 17 June 1999 and by federal Bill C-61 (S.C., 1999, chapter 10), assented to on 25 March 1999, and various amendments made to the Canada Shipping Act by federal Bill C-15 (S.C., 1998, chapter 16), assented to on 11 June 1998. In particular, the amendments concern

(1) the adjustment measures relating to the tax treatment of the doubtful loans of financial institutions and other taxpayers carrying on a business of lending money, to reflect the new accounting standards established by the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants;

(2) the rules for computing income from securities held by financial institutions;

(3) the introduction of new rules to restrict the deductibility of certain expenses by prorating the deduction over the entire duration of the economic life of a right to future income;

(4) the introduction of new provisions permitting the cost or expenditure relating to the acquisition of a tax shelter to be taken off the unpaid principal amount of a debt related to the tax shelter or off the at-risk adjustment in its respect when computing that cost or expenditure;

(5) the technical changes to the rules used to establish the risk fraction of a limited partner's interest in a partnership for the purpose of computing the deductible losses attributable to the limited partner;

(6) the consolidation, improvement and standardization of loss limitation rules that apply to losses from the disposition of shares in respect of which shareholders have received exempt dividends ;

(7) the introduction of new rules which will allow investment corporations that become mutual fund corporations to avail themselves of the capital gains dividend rules ;

(8) the measures relating to the determination of transfer pricing ;

(9) the rules applicable where a partner has a residual interest, and the loss limitation rules that apply to a loss from the disposition of an interest in a partnership.

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the specified reserve adjustment for a particular loan, other than an income bond, an income debenture, a small business bond or small business development bond, for the year or a preceding taxation year.”

(2) Paragraphs 2 and 3 of subsection 1 apply to taxation years that end

(1) after 30 September 1997; or

(2) after 31 December 1995 and before 1 October 1997 where the taxpayer elects in writing to have subsection 1 apply to the year and files the election with the Minister of Revenue before the end of the sixth month after the month that includes 23 May 2001.

(3) In the case of a taxpayer who files an election under paragraph 2 of subsection 2, the Minister of Revenue shall, for the purposes of the application of Part I of the said Act and notwithstanding sections 1010 to 1011 of the said Act, make such assessments of the taxpayer’s tax, interest and penalties as are necessary for any taxation year to give effect to the taxpayer’s election, and sections 93.1.8 and 93.1.12 of the Act respecting the Ministère du Revenu (R.S.Q., chapter M-31) apply, with the necessary modifications, to such assessments.

(4) In addition, where section 140.1 of the said Act, replaced by subsection 1, applies to a taxation year that ends after 22 February 1994 and before 1 October 1997 or, where an election under paragraph 2 of subsection 2 was made by the taxpayer, before 1 January 1996, subparagraph 2 of subparagraph ii of paragraph b of that section 140.1 shall be read as follows:

“(2) the aggregate of all amounts included under section 92 or paragraph a of section 851.22.4 in computing the taxpayer’s income for the year or a preceding taxation year to the extent that those amounts reduced the part of the reserve referred to in subparagraph 1.”

“140.1.1. For the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 140.1, a sectoral reserve is a reserve or an allowance for impairment for a loan that is determined on a sector-by-sector basis, including a geographic sector, an industrial sector or a sector of any other nature, and not on a property-by-property basis.

“140.1.2. For the purposes of subparagraph b of the first paragraph of section 140.1, a taxpayer’s specified percentage for a taxation year is

(a) where the taxpayer has a prescribed reserve amount for the year for the purposes of subparagraph a of the first paragraph of section 140.1, the percentage that is the percentage of the prescribed reserve amount of the taxpayer for the year claimed by the taxpayer under that subparagraph a for the year; and

(b) in any other case, 100%.

“140.1.3. For the purposes of subparagraph b of the second paragraph of section 140.1, the specified reserve adjustment for a loan of a taxpayer for a taxation year is the amount determined by the formula

$$0.1(A \times B \times C/365) .$$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is the carrying amount of the impaired loan that is used or would be used in determining the interest income on the loan for the taxation year in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles;

(b) B is the effective interest rate on the loan for the year determined in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and

(c) C is the number of days in the taxation year on which the loan is impaired.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end

(1) after 30 September 1997; or

(2) where an election under paragraph 2 of subsection 2 of section 22 was made by the taxpayer, after 31 December 1995 and before 1 October 1997.

24. (1) Section 140.2 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing, in the English text, the portion before paragraph b by the following:

“140.2. A taxpayer who is an insurer or whose ordinary business includes the lending of money may deduct in computing the taxpayer’s income for a taxation year, as a reserve in respect of credit risks under guarantees, indemnities, letters of credit or other credit facilities, bankers’ acceptances, interest rate or currency swaps, foreign exchange or other future or option contracts, interest rate protection agreements, risk participations and other similar instruments or commitments issued, made or assumed by the taxpayer in the ordinary course of the taxpayer’s business of insurance or the lending of money in favour of persons with whom the taxpayer deals at arm's length, an amount not exceeding the lesser of

(a) a reasonable amount as a reserve for credit risk losses of the taxpayer expected to arise after the end of the year in respect of those instruments or commitments, and”;

(2) by replacing paragraph b by the following :

“(b) 90% of the reserve for credit risk losses referred to in paragraph a determined for the year in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.”

(2) Paragraph 2 of subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end

(1) after 30 September 1997; or

(2) where an election under paragraph 2 of subsection 2 of section 22 was made by the taxpayer, after 31 December 1995 and before 1 October 1997.

25. (1) Section 141 of the said Act is amended

(1) by replacing, in the English text, the portion before paragraph b by the following :

“141. A taxpayer may deduct in computing the taxpayer's income for a taxation year the aggregate of

(a) all debts owing to the taxpayer that have been included by the taxpayer in computing the taxpayer's income for the year or a preceding taxation year and that are established by the taxpayer to have become bad debts in the year, and”;

(2) by replacing paragraph b by the following :

“(b) all amounts each of which is that part of the amortized cost to the taxpayer at the end of the year of a loan or lending asset, other than a mark-to-market property, as defined in section 851.22.1, that is established in the year by the taxpayer to have become uncollectible and that,

i. where the taxpayer is an insurer or a taxpayer whose ordinary business includes the lending of money, was made or acquired in the ordinary course of the taxpayer's business of insurance or the lending of money, or

ii. where the taxpayer is a financial institution, within the meaning of section 851.22.1, in the year, is a specified debt obligation, as defined in the first paragraph of that section, of the taxpayer.”

(2) Paragraph 2 of subsection 1 applies to taxation years that end after 22 February 1994.

26. The said Act is amended by inserting, after section 158, the following :

“DIVISION X.1

“EXPENDITURES MATCHABLE WITH A RIGHT TO RECEIVE PRODUCTION

“158.1. In this division,

“matchable expenditure” of a taxpayer means the amount of an expenditure that is made by the taxpayer to

(a) acquire a right to receive production ;

(b) fulfil a covenant or obligation in circumstances in which it is reasonable to consider that a relationship exists between the covenant or obligation and a right to receive production ; or

(c) preserve or protect a right to receive production ;

“right to receive production” means a right under which a taxpayer is entitled, either immediately or in the future and either absolutely or contingently, to receive an amount all or a portion of which is established by reference to use of property, production, revenue, profit, cash flow, commodity price, cost or value of property or any other similar criterion or by reference to dividends paid or payable to shareholders of any class of shares where the amount is in respect of another taxpayer’s activity, property or business but such a right does not include an income interest in a trust, a Canadian resource property or a foreign resource property ;

“tax benefit” means a reduction, avoidance or deferral of tax or other amount payable under this Act or an increase in a refund of tax or other amount under this Act ;

“tax shelter” means a property that would be a tax shelter, as defined in section 1079.1, if

(a) the cost of a right to receive production were equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is a matchable expenditure to which the right relates ; and

(b) sections 158.2 to 158.12 did not apply for the purpose of computing an amount, or in the case of a partnership a loss, represented to be deductible ;

“taxpayer” includes a partnership.

For the purposes of the definition of “matchable expenditure” in the first paragraph, the amount of an expenditure that a taxpayer may deduct in computing the taxpayer’s income for a taxation year under this chapter, otherwise than under this division, is not a matchable expenditure.

“158.2. Subject to section 158.3, no amount of a matchable expenditure may be deducted by a taxpayer in computing the taxpayer’s income from a business or property for a taxation year.

“158.3. If a taxpayer’s matchable expenditure would, but for section 158.2 and this section, be deductible in computing the taxpayer’s income for a taxation year, the taxpayer may deduct in respect of the matchable expenditure in computing the taxpayer’s income for a taxation year the amount that is determined under section 158.4 for the year in respect of the expenditure.

“158.4. The amount to which section 158.3 refers for a taxation year in respect of a taxpayer’s matchable expenditure is the amount that is the least of

(a) the aggregate of the amount by which the amount determined under this subparagraph for the preceding taxation year in respect of the matchable expenditure exceeds the amount of the matchable expenditure deductible in computing the taxpayer’s income for that preceding year and the lesser of

- i. 1/5 of the matchable expenditure, and
- ii. the amount determined by the formula

$$(A/B) \times C;$$

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is included in computing the taxpayer’s income for the year, other than any portion of such amount that is the subject of a reserve claimed by the taxpayer for the year under this Act, in respect of the right to receive production to which the matchable expenditure relates and the amount by which the amount determined under this subparagraph for the preceding taxation year in respect of the matchable expenditure exceeds the amount of the matchable expenditure deductible in computing the taxpayer’s income for that preceding year; and

(c) the amount by which the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of the matchable expenditure that would, but for this division, have been deductible in computing the taxpayer’s income for the year or a preceding taxation year exceeds the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount of the matchable expenditure deductible under section 158.3 in computing the taxpayer’s income for a preceding taxation year.

In the formula provided for in subparagraph a of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the number of months that are in the taxation year and after the day on which the right to receive production to which the matchable expenditure relates is acquired ;

(b) B is the lesser of 240 and the number of months that are in the period that begins on the day on which the right to receive production to which the matchable expenditure relates is acquired and that ends on the day the right is to terminate ; and

(c) C is the amount of the matchable expenditure.

“158.5. For the purposes of this division, the following rules apply :

(a) where a taxpayer’s matchable expenditure is made before the day on which the related right to receive production is acquired by the taxpayer, the expenditure is deemed to have been made on that day ;

(b) where a taxpayer has one or more rights to renew a particular right to receive production to which a matchable expenditure relates for one or more additional terms, after the term that includes the time at which the particular right was acquired, the particular right is deemed to terminate on the latest day on which the latest possible such term could terminate if all rights to renew the particular right were exercised ;

(c) where a taxpayer has more than one right to receive production that can reasonably be considered to be related to each other, the rights are deemed to be one right ; and

(d) where the term of a taxpayer’s right to receive production is for an indeterminate period, the right is deemed to terminate 20 years after it is acquired.

“158.6. Where in a taxation year a taxpayer disposes of all or part of a right to receive production to which a matchable expenditure relates, the proceeds of the disposition shall be included in computing the taxpayer’s income for the year.

“158.7. Subject to sections 158.8 and 158.9, the amount that a taxpayer may deduct, under section 158.3, in computing the taxpayer’s income for a taxation year, in respect of a matchable expenditure, other than a matchable expenditure no portion of which would, if this division were read without reference to this section, be deductible under section 158.3 in computing the taxpayer’s income, is deemed to be the amount determined under subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 158.4 for the year in respect of the matchable expenditure where in the year

(a) the taxpayer disposes, otherwise than in a disposition to which subsections 1 and 2 of section 544 or sections 556 to 564.1 and 565 apply, of all of the taxpayer's right to receive production to which the matchable expenditure relates; or

(b) the taxpayer's right to receive production to which the matchable expenditure relates has expired.

“158.8. Section 158.9 applies where a taxpayer's particular right to receive production to which a matchable expenditure, other than a matchable expenditure no portion of which would, if this division were read without reference to sections 158.7 and 158.9, be deductible under section 158.3 in computing the taxpayer's income, relates has expired or the taxpayer has disposed of all of the right, otherwise than in a disposition to which subsections 1 and 2 of section 544 or sections 556 to 564.1 and 565 apply, and

(a) where

i. during the period that begins 30 days before and ends 30 days after the disposition or expiry, the taxpayer or a person affiliated, or who does not deal at arm's length, with the taxpayer acquires a right to receive production, in this section and section 158.9 referred to as the “substituted property”, that is, or is identical to, the particular right, and

ii at the end of the period referred to in subparagraph i, the taxpayer or a person affiliated, or who does not deal at arm's length, with the taxpayer owns the substituted property; or

(b) during the period that begins at the time of the disposition or expiry and ends 30 days after that time, a taxpayer that had an interest, directly or indirectly, in the right to receive production, has another interest, directly or indirectly, in another right to receive production, which is a tax shelter or a tax shelter investment as defined by section 851.38.

“158.9. Where this section applies because of section 158.8 to a disposition or expiry in a taxation year or a preceding taxation year of a taxpayer's right to receive production to which a matchable expenditure relates, the following rules apply:

(a) the amount that may be deducted under section 158.3 in respect of the expenditure in computing the taxpayer's income for a taxation year that ends at or after the disposition or expiry of the right is the amount determined under section 158.4 for the year in respect of the expenditure; and

(b) the amount determined under section 158.4 in respect of the expenditure for a taxation year is deemed to be the amount determined under subparagraph c of the first paragraph of section 158.4 in respect of the expenditure for the year where the year includes the time that is immediately before the first time, after the disposition or expiry,

i. at which the right would, if it were owned by the taxpayer, be deemed by Title I.1 of Book VI or section 999.1 to have been disposed of by the taxpayer,

ii. that is immediately before control of the taxpayer is acquired by a person or group of persons, if the taxpayer is a corporation,

iii. at which winding-up of the taxpayer begins, other than a winding-up to which sections 556 to 564.1 and 565 apply, if the taxpayer is a corporation,

iv. where section 158.8 applies otherwise than because of paragraph b thereof, at which a 30-day period begins throughout which neither the taxpayer nor a person affiliated, or who does not deal at arm's length, with the taxpayer owns the substituted property, or a property that is identical to the substituted property and that was acquired after the day that is 31 days before the period began, or

v. where section 158.8 applies otherwise than because of paragraph a thereof, at which a 30-day period begins throughout which no taxpayer who had an interest, directly or indirectly, in the right has an interest, directly or indirectly, in another right to receive production if one or more of those direct or indirect interests in the other right is a tax shelter or tax shelter investment as defined by section 851.38.

“158.10. For the purposes of paragraph b of section 158.9, where a partnership ceases to exist at any time after a disposition or expiry referred to in section 158.9, the partnership is deemed not to have ceased to exist, and each taxpayer who was a member of the partnership immediately before the partnership would, but for this section, have ceased to exist is deemed to remain a member of the partnership until the time that is immediately after the first of the times described in subparagraphs i to v of paragraph b of section 158.9.

“158.11. For the purpose of applying section 158.8, otherwise than because of paragraph b thereof, and section 158.9, a right to acquire a particular right to receive production, other than a right, as security only, derived from a mortgage, agreement of sale or similar obligation, is deemed to be a right to receive production that is identical to the particular right.

“158.12. For the purpose of applying Title VIII of Book VI to an amount that would, if this division were read without reference to this section, be a matchable expenditure any portion of the cost of which is deductible under section 158.3, the expenditure is deemed to be a tax shelter investment and that Title VIII shall be read without reference to paragraph b of section 851.41.

“158.13. Where the rate of return on a taxpayer's right to receive production to which a matchable expenditure, other than a matchable expenditure no portion of which would, if this division were read without reference to this section, be deductible under section 158.3 in computing the taxpayer's income, relates is reasonably certain at the time the taxpayer acquires the right, the following rules apply:

(a) for the purposes of section 92.5 and the regulations made under that section,

i. the right is deemed to be a debt obligation in respect of which no interest is stipulated to be payable in respect of the principal amount, and

ii. the obligation is deemed to be satisfied at the time the right terminates for an amount equal to the total of the return on the debt obligation and the amount that would otherwise be the matchable expenditure that is related to the right; and

(b) notwithstanding section 158.3, no amount may be deducted in computing the taxpayer's income in respect of any matchable expenditure that relates to the right.

“158.14. Subject to sections 158.1 and 158.13, this division does not apply to a taxpayer's matchable expenditure in respect of a right to receive production if no portion of the expenditure can reasonably be considered to have been paid to another taxpayer, or to a person with whom the other taxpayer does not deal at arm's length, to acquire the right to receive production from the other taxpayer and

(a) the taxpayer's expenditure cannot reasonably be considered to relate to a tax shelter or tax shelter investment, as defined by section 851.38, and none of the main purposes for making the expenditure is that the taxpayer, or a person with whom the taxpayer does not deal at arm's length, obtain a tax benefit; or

(b) before the end of the taxation year in which the expenditure is made, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is included in computing the taxpayer's income for the year, other than any portion of such an amount that is the subject of a reserve claimed by the taxpayer for the year under this Act, in respect of the right to receive production to which the matchable expenditure relates, exceeds 80% of the expenditure.”

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of expenditures made by a taxpayer or a partnership after 17 November 1996, with the exception of the following expenditures in respect of a particular right to receive production:

(1) an expenditure made before 1 January 1997 pursuant to an agreement in writing made by the taxpayer or the partnership before that date to acquire the particular right as consideration for the payment of selling commissions incurred before that date in relation to the distribution of shares of a mutual fund corporation or units of a mutual fund trust or to render production services before that date for a film or video production;

(2) an expenditure made before 1 August 1997 if

(a) the expenditure was made pursuant to an agreement in writing made by the taxpayer or the partnership before 1 August 1997 to acquire the particular right as consideration for the payment of selling commissions incurred after 31 December 1996 but before 1 August 1997 in relation to the distribution of shares of a mutual fund corporation or units of a mutual fund trust that is managed by an administrator of mutual funds,

(3) an expenditure made before 1 August 1997 if

(a) the expenditure is made pursuant to an agreement in writing made by the taxpayer or the partnership before 1 August 1997 to acquire the particular right as consideration for the payment of selling commissions incurred after 31 December 1996 but before 1 August 1997 in relation to the distribution of shares of a mutual fund corporation or units of a mutual fund trust that is managed by an administrator of mutual funds, other than an administrator that is or is related to an administrator referred to in paragraph 2 in respect of commissions incurred in relation to the distribution of shares or units referred to in that paragraph,

(b) the aggregate of all expenditures made by any taxpayer or partnership to acquire particular rights as consideration for the payment of selling commissions in relation to the distribution of shares of a mutual fund corporation or units of a mutual fund trust that is managed by the administrator of mutual funds or any other person that is related to the administrator does not exceed $10,000,000, and

(b) the particular right is identified in the document, and

(c) all the funds raised pursuant to the terms of the document were raised before 1 January 1997 and all tax shelter investments, as defined in section 851.38 of the said Act, enacted by subsection 1 of section 132, that can reasonably be considered to relate to the expenditure were acquired before 1 August 1997;

reasonably be considered to relate to the expenditure were acquired before 1 August 1997.

(3) Paragraphs 5 to 7 of subsection 2 apply to an expenditure only if

(1) there is no agreement or other arrangement under which the obligations of the taxpayer or the partnership in respect of the expenditure can be changed, reduced or waived if there is an amendment to the said Act or if there is an adverse assessment under the said Act,

(2) where the expenditure is associated with one or more tax shelters sold or offered for sale at a time and in circumstances in which Book X.1 of Part I of the said Act requires an identification number to be obtained, an identification number was obtained before that time, and

(3) in the case of an expenditure, including an expenditure to which paragraph 5 of subsection 2 applies, made pursuant to a document described in paragraph 6 or 7 of that subsection 2, a portion of the securities authorized to be sold in 1996 pursuant to the document was, after 31 December 1995 and before 19 December 1996, sold to, or subscribed by, a person who was not, at the time of the sale or subscription,

(2) Subsection 1 applies in respect of expenses incurred after 31 December 1987.

29. (1) Section 194 of the said Act, amended by section 50 of chapter 5 of the statutes of 2000, is again amended, in the third paragraph,

“TRANSFER PRICING

“1082.3. In this Title,

“arm’s length allocation” means, in respect of a transaction, an allocation of profit or loss that would have occurred between the participants in the transaction if they had been dealing at arm’s length with each other;

“arm’s length transfer price” means, in respect of a transaction, an amount that would have been a transfer price in respect of the transaction if the participants in the transaction had been dealing at arm’s length with each other;

“documentation-due date” for a taxation year of a taxpayer or a fiscal period of a partnership means

(a) in the case of a taxpayer, the taxpayer’s filing-due date for the year; or

(b) in the case of a partnership, the day on or before which an information return is required by section 1086R23.1 of the Regulation respecting the Taxation Act (R.R.Q., 1981, chapter I-3, r.1) to be filed for the fiscal period or would be required to be so filed if that section applied to the partnership;

“qualifying cost contribution arrangement” means an arrangement under which reasonable efforts are made by the participants in the arrangement to establish a basis for contributing to, and to contribute on that basis to, the cost of producing, developing or acquiring any property, or acquiring or performing any services, in proportion to the benefits which each participant is reasonably expected to derive from the property or services, as the case may be, as a result of the arrangement;

“tax benefit” means a reduction, avoidance or deferral of tax or other amount payable under this Act or an increase in a refund of tax or other amount under this Act;

“transaction” includes an arrangement or event;

“transfer price” means, in respect of a transaction, an amount paid or payable or an amount received or receivable, as the case may be, by a participant in the transaction as a price, a rental, a royalty, a premium or other payment for, or for the use, production or reproduction of, property or as consideration for services, including services provided as an employee and the insurance or reinsurance of risks, as part of the transaction;

“transfer pricing capital adjustment” of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is $\frac{3}{4}$ of the amount by which the adjusted cost base to the taxpayer of a capital property, other than a depreciable property, or an intangible capital amount of the taxpayer in respect of a business is reduced in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, or the amount by which the capital cost to the taxpayer of a depreciable property is reduced in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the product obtained by multiplying the aggregate of $\frac{3}{4}$ of the amount by which the adjusted cost base to a partnership of a capital property, other than a depreciable property, or an intangible capital amount of a partnership in respect of a business is reduced in a fiscal period that ends in the year because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, and the amount by which the capital cost to a partnership of a depreciable property is reduced in the fiscal period because of an adjustment made under section 1082.4, by the proportion that the taxpayer's share of the income or loss of the partnership for the fiscal period is of the income or loss of the partnership for the fiscal period, on the assumption that, if the income or loss of the partnership for that fiscal period were nil, the partnership's income for the fiscal period is equal to \$1,000,000;

“transfer pricing capital setoff adjustment” of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the amount that would be the taxpayer's transfer pricing capital adjustment for the year if the references, in the definition “transfer pricing capital adjustment”, to “reduced” were read as “increased”;

“transfer pricing income adjustment” of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an adjustment made under section 1082.4, other than an adjustment included in determining a transfer pricing capital adjustment of the taxpayer for a taxation year, would result in an increase in the taxpayer's income for the year or a decrease in a loss of the taxpayer for the year from a source if that adjustment were the only adjustment made under section 1082.4;

“transfer pricing income setoff adjustment” of a taxpayer for a taxation year means the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount by which an adjustment made under section 1082.4, other than an adjustment included in determining a transfer pricing capital setoff adjustment of the taxpayer for a taxation year, would result in a decrease in the taxpayer's income for the year or an increase in a loss of the taxpayer for the year from a source if that adjustment were the only adjustment made under section 1082.4.

“1082.4. The rule set out in the second paragraph applies where a taxpayer or a partnership and a person not resident in Canada with whom the taxpayer or the partnership, or a member of the partnership, does not deal at arm's length, or a partnership of which the person not resident in Canada is a member, are participants in a transaction or a series of transactions and

(a) the terms and conditions made or imposed, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions, between any of the participants in the transaction or series of transactions differ from those that would have been made between persons dealing at arm's length; or

(b) the transaction or series of transactions would not have been entered into between persons dealing at arm's length and can reasonably be considered not to have been entered into primarily for bona fide purposes other than to obtain a tax benefit.

Where the conditions set out in the first paragraph are met, any amounts that, but for this Title and sections 1079.9 to 1079.16, would be determined for the purposes of this Act in respect of the taxpayer or the partnership for a taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be, shall be adjusted to the quantum or nature of the amounts that would have been determined if,

(a) where only subparagraph a of the first paragraph applies, the terms and conditions made or imposed, in respect of the transaction or series of transactions, between the participants in the transaction or series of transactions had been those that would have been made between persons dealing at arm's length; or

(b) where subparagraph b of the first paragraph applies, the transaction or series of transactions entered into between the participants had been the transaction or series of transactions that would have been entered into between persons dealing at arm's length, under terms and conditions that would have been made between persons dealing at arm's length.

“1082.5. Where the amount determined under section 1082.6 in respect of a taxpayer for a taxation year is greater than the lesser of 10% of the amount that would be the taxpayer's gross revenue for the year if this Act were read without reference to sections 422, 422.1, 1079.9 to 1079.16 and 1082.4, and $5,000,000, the taxpayer, other than the taxpayer all of whose taxable income for the year is exempt from tax under this Part, is liable to a penalty for a year equal to 10% of the amount determined under section 1082.6 in respect of the taxpayer for the year.

“1082.6. The amount to which section 1082.5 refers in respect of a taxpayer for a taxation year is equal to the amount by which the aggregate of the taxpayer's transfer pricing capital adjustment for the year and the taxpayer's transfer pricing income adjustment for the year exceeds the aggregate of

(a) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of the taxpayer's transfer pricing capital adjustment or transfer pricing income adjustment for the year that may reasonably be considered to relate to a particular transaction, where

i. the transaction is a qualifying cost contribution arrangement in which the taxpayer or a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member is a participant, or

ii. in any other case, the taxpayer or a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member made reasonable efforts to determine arm's length transfer prices or arm's length allocations in respect of the transaction, and to use those prices or allocations for the purposes of this Act; and

(b) the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the portion of the taxpayer's transfer pricing capital setoff adjustment or transfer pricing income setoff adjustment for the year that may reasonably be considered to relate to a particular transaction, where

i. the transaction is a qualifying cost contribution arrangement in which the taxpayer or a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member is a participant, or

ii. in any other case, the taxpayer or a partnership of which the taxpayer is a member made reasonable efforts to determine arm's length transfer prices or arm's length allocations in respect of the transaction, and to use those prices or allocations for the purposes of this Act.

“1082.7. For the purposes of the definition of “qualifying cost contribution arrangement” in section 1082.3 and of sections 1082.5 and 1082.6, a taxpayer or a partnership is deemed not to have made reasonable efforts to determine and use arm's length transfer prices or arm's length allocations in respect of a transaction or not to have participated in a transaction that is a qualifying cost contribution arrangement, unless the taxpayer or the partnership, as the case may be,

(a) makes or obtains, on or before the taxpayer's or partnership's documentation-due date for the taxation year or fiscal period, as the case may be, in which the transaction is entered into, records or documents that provide a description that is complete and accurate in all material respects of

i. the property or services to which the transaction relates,

ii. the terms and conditions of the transaction and their relationship to the terms and conditions of each other transaction entered into between the participants in the transaction,

iii. the identity of the participants in the transaction and their relationship to each other at the time the transaction was entered into,

iv. the functions performed, the property used or contributed and the risks assumed, in respect of the transaction, by the participants in the transaction,

v. the data and methods considered and the analysis performed to determine the transfer prices or the allocations of profits or losses or contributions to costs, as the case may be, in respect of the transaction, and

vi. the assumptions, strategies and policies that influenced the determination of the transfer prices or the allocations of profits or losses or contributions to costs, as the case may be, in respect of the transaction;

(b) for each subsequent taxation year or fiscal period in which the transaction continues, makes or obtains, on or before the taxpayer's or partnership's documentation-due date for that year or period, as the case may be, records or documents that completely and accurately describe each material change in the year or period to the matters referred to in subparagraphs i to vi of paragraph a in respect of the transaction; and

(c) provides the records or documents described in paragraphs a and b to the Minister within three months after service, made personally or by registered mail, of a written request therefor.

“1082.8. For the purposes of section 1082.5, where a taxpayer is a member of a partnership in a taxation year, the taxpayer's gross revenue for the year as a member of the partnership from any activities carried on by means of the partnership is deemed to be equal to the product obtained by multiplying the amount that would be the partnership's gross revenue from the activities if it were a taxpayer, to the extent that that amount does not include amounts received or receivable from other partnerships of which the taxpayer is a member in the year, for a fiscal period of the partnership that ends in the year, by the proportion that the taxpayer's share of the income or loss of the partnership from its activities for the fiscal period is of the income or loss of the partnership from its activities for the fiscal period, on the assumption that, if the income and loss of the partnership from its activities are nil for the fiscal period, the income of the partnership from its activities for the fiscal period is equal to $1,000,000.

“1082.9. For the purposes of this Title, where a person is a member of a partnership that is a member of another partnership, the following rules apply:

(a) the person is deemed to be a member of the other partnership; and

(b) the person's share of the income or loss of the other partnership is deemed to be equal to the amount of that income or loss to which the person is directly or indirectly entitled.

“1082.10. Section 1082.4 does not apply in respect of a transaction that is a loan referred to in section 127 if the loan was made to a subsidiary controlled corporation and it is established that the money that was lent was used in the subsidiary corporation's business to gain income.

“1082.11. Sections 420, 421, 422 and 422.1 shall not apply to determine an amount under this Act where, but for those sections, the amount would be adjusted by reason of section 1082.4 and if the amount is so adjusted.

“1082.12. For the purpose of determining a taxpayer's gross revenue under sections 1082.5 and 1082.8, a transaction or series of transactions is deemed not to have occurred, if one of the purposes of the transaction or series of transactions was to increase the taxpayer's gross revenue for the purposes of section 1082.5.

“1082.13. An adjustment, other than an adjustment that results in or increases a transfer pricing capital adjustment or a transfer pricing income adjustment of a taxpayer for a taxation year, shall not be made under section 1082.4 unless, in the opinion of the Minister, the circumstances are such that it would be appropriate that the adjustment be made.”

(2) Subsection 1, where it enacts sections 1082.3, 1082.4, 1082.9 to 1082.11 and 1082.13 of the said Act, applies to taxation years and fiscal periods that begin after 31 December 1997.
