“776.41.4. For the purposes of sections 776.41.1 to 776.41.3, “taxation year” has the meaning that would be assigned by this Part if it were read without reference to section 779.

“776.41.5. Subject to the fifth paragraph and sections 776.41.6 to 776.41.10, an individual who has an eligible spouse for a taxation year may deduct from the individual's tax otherwise payable for the year under this Part, computed without reference to section 752.12, the amount determined by the formula,

$A - B.$

In the formula provided for in the first paragraph,

(a) A is,

i. where the rules set out in Book V.2.1 apply for the taxation year to the individual's eligible spouse for the year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the eligible spouse may, in accordance with section 776.76, deduct under Book V in computing the eligible spouse's tax otherwise payable for the year under this Part, except this section, or the amount that the eligible spouse may deduct under section 776.77 in computing the eligible spouse's tax payable for the year, and

ii. where the rules set out in Book V.2.1 do not apply for the taxation year to the individual's eligible spouse for the year, the aggregate of all amounts each of which is an amount that the eligible spouse may deduct under Book V in computing the eligible spouse's tax otherwise payable for the year under this Part, other than an amount deductible under section 752.12; and

(b) B is the eligible spouse's tax otherwise payable for the taxation year under this Part, computed without reference to the deductions to which subparagraph i of subparagraph a refers, where the rules set out in Book V.2.1 apply for the year to the individual's eligible spouse for the year, or without reference to the deductions provided for in Book V, where the rules set out in Book V.2.1 do not apply for the year to the individual's eligible spouse for the year.

For the purposes of subparagraph i of subparagraph a of the second paragraph, where the eligible spouse of an individual for a taxation year may deduct, for the year, an amount under any of sections 752.0.10.6, 752.0.11, 772.8, 776.1.1 and 776.1.2, in this paragraph referred to as the "deductible amount", the individual may, in respect of the deductible amount, include in the aggregate referred to in that subparagraph i only the portion of the deductible amount indicated by the eligible spouse in the fiscal return the eligible spouse files for the year.

For the purposes of subparagraph ii of subparagraph a of the second paragraph, where the eligible spouse of an individual for a taxation year may deduct, for the year, an amount under any of sections 752.0.10.6, 752.0.11, 752.0.18.10, 752.0.18.15, 772.8, 776.1.1 and 776.1.2, in this paragraph referred to as the "deductible amount", the individual may, in respect of the deductible amount, include in the aggregate referred to in that subparagraph ii only the portion of the deductible amount indicated by the eligible spouse in the fiscal return the eligible spouse files for the year.

An individual may deduct an amount under this section in computing the individual's tax otherwise payable under this Part for a taxation year only if the individual and the individual's eligible spouse for the year file a fiscal return for the year under this Part.

“776.41.6. Where an individual is referred to in the second paragraph of section 22 or 25, the amount that may be deducted by the individual under section 776.41.5 in computing the individual's tax otherwise payable for a taxation year under this Part shall not exceed the portion of the amount that is the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 22 or 25, as the case may be.

“776.41.7. Where an individual is resident in Canada only during part of a taxation year, the following rules apply for the purpose of determining the amount that may be deducted by the individual under section 776.41.5 in computing the individual's tax otherwise payable for the year under this Part :

(a) in respect of any period in the year throughout which the individual was resident in Canada, the amount deductible under section 776.41.5 must be computed as though that period were a whole taxation year and the amount that would have been deductible under section 776.41.5, if the individual had been resident in Canada throughout the year, were replaced by an amount equal to the proportion of the amount that the number of days in that period is of the number of days in the year; and

(b) in respect of a period in the year that is not referred to in subparagraph a, the amount deductible under section 776.41.5 must be computed as though that period were a whole taxation year.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the amount deductible by the individual for the year under section 776.41.5, as a consequence of the application of the rules set out in the first paragraph, shall not exceed the amount that would have been otherwise deductible, under section 776.41.5, if the individual had been resident in Canada throughout the year.

“776.41.8. Where an individual is referred to in the second paragraph of section 26, section 776.41.5 does not apply for the purpose of computing the individual’s tax otherwise payable for a taxation year under this Part.

However, where all or substantially all of the individual’s income for the year, as determined under section 28, is included in computing the individual’s taxable income earned in Canada for the year, the individual may deduct, in computing the individual’s tax otherwise payable for the year under this Part, such portion of the amount, as determined under section 776.41.5, that is the proportion referred to in the second paragraph of section 26.

“776.41.9. Where an individual dies in a taxation year, the amount determined in respect of the individual for the year under section 776.41.5 may be deducted only in computing the individual’s tax payable as indicated in the fiscal return the individual is required to file for the year under this Part, otherwise than as the result of an election made by the individual’s legal representative in accordance with the second paragraph of section 429 or section 681 or 1003.

Where the eligible spouse of an individual for a taxation year dies in the year, the individual may deduct, in computing the individual’s tax payable for the year under section 776.41.5, only the amount determined by the formula provided for in the first paragraph of that section on the basis of the amounts indicated in the fiscal return of the individual’s eligible spouse for the year filed under this Part, otherwise than as the result of an election made by the individual’s legal representative in accordance with the second paragraph of section 429 or section 681 or 1003.

“776.41.10. Where an individual has become a bankrupt during a calendar year, the individual may, for that year, deduct an amount under section 776.41.5 only in computing the individual’s tax payable as indicated in the fiscal return the individual is required to file under this Part for the taxation year that is deemed, under section 779, to commence on the date of the bankruptcy.

Where the eligible spouse of an individual for a taxation year has become a bankrupt during a calendar year, the amount that the individual may deduct for the taxation year under section 776.41.5 in computing the individual's tax payable is equal to the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the amount determined under the first paragraph of section 776.41.5 for each of the taxation years of the eligible spouse that is included in the calendar year.

“776.41.11. Where an individual deducts an amount under section 776.41.5 in computing tax payable under this Part for a taxation year, and where a portion of that amount is reasonably attributable to a deduction to which the eligible spouse of the individual for the year is entitled for the year under a particular provision referred to in the second paragraph, the portion of that amount is deemed to be deducted under the particular provision by the eligible spouse in computing tax payable under this Part for the year for the purpose of determining the amount that the eligible spouse will be entitled to deduct, under the particular provision or another particular provision, in computing the tax payable under this Part for another taxation year.

The provisions to which the first paragraph refers are sections 752.0.11, 752.0.10.6, 752.0.18.10, 752.0.18.15, 772.8, 776.1.1 and 776.1.2.

For the purpose of determining the portion of the amount that an individual may deduct under section 776.41.5 in computing tax payable under this Part for a taxation year that is reasonably attributable to a deduction to which the eligible spouse of the individual for the year is entitled for the year under a particular provision referred to in the second paragraph, the provisions referred to in that paragraph shall be applied in the order provided for in that paragraph.”

ii. the reduction amount of the salaries or wages in relation to the recognized business.

The aggregate of the amounts referred to in the first paragraph that reduced the amount of the salaries or wages that the qualified corporation or a corporation associated with it paid in respect of a period within the qualified corporation’s base period in relation to a recognized business, shall not exceed, for each of those corporations, the aggregate of the amounts referred to in the first paragraph that reduced the amount of the salaries or wages paid by the corporation, in relation to the recognized business, in respect of the calendar year ending in its particular taxation year.

“1029.8.36.0.3.66. For the purposes of this division, an amount of assistance is deemed to be repaid in a calendar year by a qualified corporation where that amount “1029.8.36.0.3.67. Where a corporation, in this section referred to as the “new corporation”, resulting from the amalgamation, within the meaning of section 544, of two or more corporations, each of which referred to in this section as a “predecessor corporation”, carries on after the amalgamation a business carried on before the amalgamation by a predecessor corporation, the new corporation and the predecessor corporation are deemed, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division for the taxation year in which the calendar year in which the amalgamation occurred ends and for a subsequent taxation year, to be the same corporation throughout the period during which the predecessor corporation carried on, or is deemed to have carried on under this division, the business.

In addition, for the purposes of this division, where the new corporation carries on after the amalgamation a recognized business resulting from the consolidation of recognized businesses carried on by predecessor corporations, immediately before the amalgamation, each recognized business so carried on before the amalgamation is deemed to be a separate recognized business carried on by the new corporation after the amalgamation.

ii. to have paid to employees in respect of a period within the particular calendar year for which the employees are eligible employees, in relation to the particular recognized business, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph i, in relation to the particular recognized business, exceeds the amount of the particular aggregate determined in relation to the particular recognized business,

iii. to have a base amount, in relation to the particular recognized business, equal to the aggregate of

(d) if the purchaser does not carry on a recognized business after the particular time and the particular recognized business is a business of a corporation that is associated with the purchaser at the end of the particular calendar year, the purchaser is deemed to have paid

i. in respect of the base period, in relation to the particular recognized business, the amount that is the proportion of the aggregate, in subparagraph ii referred to as the “particular aggregate”, of all amounts each of which is the salary or wages of an employee who reports for work at an establishment of the purchaser situated in Québec, other than an excluded employee of the purchaser, that the purchaser paid, after the particular time, in respect of a period of the particular calendar year during which the employee spends, when at work, at least 90% of the time in undertaking, supervising or supporting, in the course of the business in an establishment of the purchaser situated in Québec or elsewhere, but in connection with the mandates attributable to such an establishment in Québec, work that is directly related to activities of the purchaser that are described in any of paragraphs a to c of the definition of “recognized business” in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60, to the extent that the salary or wages may reasonably be considered to relate to the carrying on by the employee of the part of the activities that began or increased at the particular time that 365 is of the number of days in the particular calendar year during which the purchaser carried on those activities, except if an amount is included, in respect of the employee, in relation to the purchaser, in computing an amount determined under this subparagraph, in relation to another recognized business, and

ii. in respect of the particular calendar year, the amount by which the amount determined pursuant to subparagraph i, in relation to the particular recognized business, exceeds the amount of the particular aggregate, in relation to the particular recognized business.

In the formulas provided for in subparagraphs a and b of the first paragraph,

(a) A is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the salary or wages of an employee who reports for work at an establishment of the vendor situated in a designated site, other than an excluded employee of the vendor, that the vendor paid in respect of a period within the vendor's base period, in relation to the particular recognized business, throughout which the employee spends, when at work, at least 90% of the time in undertaking, supervising or supporting, in the course of carrying on the business in an establishment of the vendor situated in the designated site or elsewhere, but in connection with the mandates attributable to such an establishment situated in that site, work that is directly related to activities of the vendor that are described in any of paragraphs a to c of the definition of "recognized business" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60;

(b) B is the aggregate of all amounts each of which is the salary or wages of an employee who reports for work at an establishment of the vendor situated in Québec, other than an excluded employee of the vendor, that the vendor paid in respect of a period within the base period, in relation to the particular recognized business, throughout which the employee spends, when at work, at least 90% of the time in undertaking, supervising or supporting, in an establishment of the vendor situated in Québec or elsewhere, but in connection with the mandates attributable to such an establishment situated in Québec, work that is directly related to activities of the vendor that are described in any of paragraphs a to c of the definition of "recognized business" in the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.60, except if an amount is included, in respect of the employee, in relation to the vendor, in computing an amount determined under this subparagraph, in relation to another recognized business;

(c) C is the proportion that the number of the vendor's employees referred to in subparagraph a or b, as the case may be, who were assigned to the carrying on of part of the activities that diminished or ceased at the particular time is of the number of the vendor's employees assigned to those activities immediately before the particular time; and

(d) D, where this section applies for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division in respect of the particular calendar year, is the proportion that the number of days in the particular calendar year following the particular time is of 365 and, in any other case, 1.

Where a particular corporation is, at any time in a calendar year, a purchaser in relation to activities carried on by a person or partnership and, at a subsequent time in the same calendar year, the particular corporation is a vendor in relation to all of those activities, this section does not apply to the particular corporation either as vendor or as purchaser in respect of the activities and, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division, the particular corporation is deemed to have paid, from that time to the subsequent time, no portion of the salaries or wages that may reasonably be considered to relate to the employees of the corporation assigned to the carrying on of the activities that ceased after the subsequent time.

Where a particular corporation is, at a particular time in a calendar year, a purchaser in relation to activities carried on by a person or partnership and, at a subsequent time in the same calendar year, the particular corporation is a vendor in relation to part of those activities, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division, the particular corporation is deemed not to have paid to its employees the portion of the salaries or wages that may reasonably be considered to have been paid to the employees of the corporation assigned to the part of the activities that the particular corporation ceases to carry on after the subsequent time.

“1029.8.36.0.3.70. For the purposes of this division, where a corporation has received, is entitled to receive or may reasonably expect to receive non-government assistance, or where a person or a partnership has obtained, is entitled to obtain or may reasonably expect to obtain a benefit or advantage, whether in the form of a reimbursement, compensation, guarantee, in the form of proceeds of disposition of property which exceed the fair market value of the property, or in any other form or manner, in respect of a taxation year or a fiscal period in which the base period of a particular corporation ends, in relation to a recognized business it carries on, and it may reasonably be considered that the main reason for the assistance or the benefit or advantage is to reduce, in accordance with subparagraph i or iii of subparagraph a or b of the first paragraph of section 1029.8.36.0.3.65, as the case may be, the amount of the salaries or wages paid by the particular corporation or a corporation that is associated with the particular corporation, in respect of the base period, in relation to the recognized business, so as to cause the particular corporation to be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division for a taxation year or to increase an amount that the particular corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division for a taxation year, the amount of the assistance or of the benefit or advantage is deemed to be equal to zero.

“1029.8.36.0.3.71. Where it may reasonably be considered that one of the main reasons for the separate existence of two or more corporations in a calendar year is to cause a qualified corporation to be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division in respect of that year or to increase an amount that a qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division in respect of that year, those corporations are deemed, for the purposes of this division, to be associated with each other at the end of the year.”

(d) D, where this section applies for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division in respect of the particular calendar year, is the proportion that the number of days in the particular calendar year following the particular time is of 365, and, in any other case, 1.

Where a particular corporation is, at any time in a calendar year, a purchaser in relation to activities carried on by a person or partnership and, at a subsequent time in the same calendar year, the particular corporation is a vendor in relation to all of those activities, this section does not apply to the particular corporation either as vendor or as purchaser in respect of the activities and, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division, the particular corporation is deemed to have paid, from that time to the subsequent time, no portion of the salaries or wages that may reasonably be considered to relate to the employees of the corporation assigned to the carrying on of the activities that ceased after the subsequent time.

Where a particular corporation is, at a particular time in a calendar year, a purchaser in relation to activities carried on by a person or partnership and, at a subsequent time in the same calendar year, the particular corporation is a vendor in relation to part of those activities, for the purpose of determining the amount that a corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division, the particular corporation is deemed not to have paid to its employees the portion of the salaries or wages that may reasonably be considered to have been paid to the employees of the corporation assigned to the part of the activities that the particular corporation ceases to carry on after the subsequent time.

“1029.8.36.72.94. Where it may reasonably be considered that one of the main reasons for the separate existence of two or more corporations in a calendar year is to cause a qualified corporation to be deemed to have paid an amount to the Minister under this division in respect of that year or to increase an amount that a qualified corporation is deemed to have paid to the Minister under this division in respect of that year, those corporations are deemed, for the purposes of this division, to be associated with each other at the end of the year.”

467. Notwithstanding subsection 2 of section 169 of the Act to amend the Taxation Act and other legislative provisions (1999, chapter 83), the amount that a taxpayer is deemed to have paid to the Minister of Revenue under section 1029.8 of the Taxation Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-3) must be determined, in respect of scientific research and experimental development undertaken in the period between 30 June 1992 and 1 April 1998 under a contract entered into after 30 June 1992 and before 1 April 1998, as if the rules provided for in subparagraphs f and g of the first paragraph of section 1029.8, as they read when enacted by subsection 1 of section 169, had applied to that period.
