EXPLANATORY NOTES

This bill amends mainly the Courts of Justice Act as regards justices of the peace. It makes a distinction between two types of justices of the peace, presiding and administrative justices of the peace, and sets out classes for the latter based on the scope of the powers they may exercise.

Administrative justices of the peace are appointed to hold office during pleasure by the Minister of Justice, who determines the class to which they are assigned. They exercise their functions either within the Superior Court and the Court of Québec or within a municipal court.

Presiding justices of the peace form part of the judicial system and are therefore appointed by the Government to hold office during good behaviour. They are under the authority of the chief judge of the Court of Québec and are subject to the competence of the Conseil de la magistrature with respect to observance of the code of ethics. The bill contains provisions to ensure their financial security as concerns salary, conditions of employment, employment benefits and pension plan. As of 2007, the committee on the remuneration of judges will determine their total remuneration.

Lastly, the bill requires all justices of the peace to take an oath to exercise their functions impartially and honestly.

LEGISLATION AMENDED BY THIS BILL:

- Act respecting municipal courts (R.S.Q., chapter C-72.01);
- Territorial Division Act (R.S.Q., chapter D-11);
- Interpretation Act (R.S.Q., chapter I-16);
- Act respecting the Québec Pension Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-9);
- Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16).

AN ACT TO AMEND THE COURTS OF JUSTICE ACT AND OTHER LEGISLATIVE PROVISIONS AS REGARDS THE STATUS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

THE PARLIAMENT OF QUÉBEC ENACTS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Part III.1 of the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16) is replaced by the following Part:

“PART III.1

“JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

“DIVISION I

“ADMINISTRATIVE JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

“158. Administrative justices of the peace are appointed by the Minister of Justice, by order.

The ministerial order confers on such justices of the peace jurisdiction over the whole territory of Québec or over the judicial districts or the territories indicated.

Administrative justices of the peace shall exercise their functions within the Superior Court and the Court of Québec or within a municipal court, as indicated in the order.

“159. Administrative justices of the peace shall exercise their functions during pleasure.

“160. Administrative justices of the peace shall exercise only the powers and functions determined in Schedule IV for the class assigned to them in their notice of appointment.

“DIVISION II

“PRESIDING JUSTICES OF THE PEACE

“161. Presiding justices of the peace are appointed by the Government, by a commission under the Great Seal. They shall hold office during good behaviour.

The notice of appointment shall determine their place of residence.

The Government may, in accordance with sections 108, 110, 112 and 113 with the necessary modifications, modify the notice of appointment of a presiding justice of the peace with respect to the place of residence.

“162. Presiding justices of the peace are appointed from among advocates having at least ten years’ practice.

The years during which a person acquired pertinent legal experience after obtaining a diploma of admission to the Barreau du Québec or a certificate of competence to practise the profession of advocate in Québec may be considered.

“163. Presiding justices of the peace are chosen for appointment according to the selection procedure for persons apt for appointment as presiding justices of the peace established by government regulation. The regulation may, in particular,

(1) determine how a person may apply for the office of presiding justice of the peace;

(2) authorize the Minister of Justice to form a selection committee to evaluate the aptitude of candidates for the office of presiding justice of the peace and to provide the Minister with an assessment of the candidates;

(3) determine the composition of the committee and the mode of appointment of committee members;

(4) determine the selection criteria to be taken into account by the committee; and

(5) determine the information the committee may require of a candidate and the consultations it may make.

“164. Members of a selection committee are not entitled to remuneration, except in such cases, under such conditions and to such extent as may be determined by the Government.

Expenses incurred in the exercise of their functions shall be reimbursed, however, subject to the conditions and to the extent determined by the Government.

“165. A presiding justice of the peace who reaches 70 years of age shall cease to hold office.

“166. A presiding justice of the peace shall cease to hold office before reaching 70 years of age only upon retiring or resigning, or upon being dismissed or relieved from duties in the circumstances referred to in sections 167 and 168.

“167. The Government may dismiss a presiding justice of the peace only upon a report of the Court of Appeal made after inquiry at the request of the Minister of Justice.

“168. A presiding justice of the peace who is suffering from permanent physical or mental disability which, in the opinion of the Government, prevents the justice of the peace from effectively performing the duties of the office shall be relieved from duties. Unless the justice of the peace resumes duties under the second paragraph, the justice of the peace is deemed to have ceased to hold office on the day preceding the day on which the justice of the peace satisfies the requirements for eligibility for his or her pension.

If the justice of the peace recovers, the Government may permit him or her to resume duties.

Permanent disability is established, at the request of the Minister of Justice, after inquiry by the Conseil de la magistrature. Termination of permanent disability is established in the same manner.

“169. Presiding justices of the peace shall exercise their functions within the Court of Québec.

They are under the authority of the chief judge of that court. The chief judge shall coordinate, distribute and supervise the work of presiding justices of the peace, who must comply with the chief judge’s orders and directives.

Another function of the chief judge is to ensure that the judicial code of ethics is observed and to promote the professional development of presiding justices of the peace in collaboration with the Conseil de la magistrature.

“170. The chief judge may designate any judge of the Court of Québec to assist him or her, to the extent specified, in exercising the functions and powers conferred on the chief judge by this Part.

“171. Presiding justices of the peace shall devote their time exclusively to duties of the office.

The office of presiding justice of the peace is incompatible, in particular, with the office of director or manager of a legal person or any other constituted body, or with the conduct, even indirect, of commercial activities.

“172. Presiding justices of the peace have jurisdiction throughout Québec, wherever they may be assigned to exercise their functions by the chief judge.

“173. Presiding justices of the peace shall exercise only the functions and powers conferred on them by Schedule V.

“174. A telephone appearance service under the Criminal Code must be provided without interruption on weekends, holidays and on weekdays outside business hours.

This service shall be provided, in particular, by presiding justices of the peace.

“175. The Government shall fix, by order, the salary and conditions of employment of presiding justices of the peace, including their employment benefits other than the pension plan. The order determining the employment benefits other than the pension plan may establish the contribution of presiding justices of the peace.

The order shall also determine the conditions for reimbursement of the expenses incurred by presiding justices of the peace in the carrying out of their duties and the extent to which they are reimbursed.

The order may provide for an annual vacation and leave plan and determine how vacation and leave are allocated.

“176. Before making an order under section 175, the Government must comply with the prescriptions of Part VI.4.

“177. An order under section 175 comes into force on the date of its publication in the Gazette officielle du Québec or any earlier or later date specified in the order.

“178. Presiding justices of the peace shall participate in the pension plan established by the Act respecting the Pension Plan of Management Personnel (chapter R-12.1).

This section applies subject to the provisions of Part VI.4.

“179. The sums required for the carrying out of section 175 are taken out of the consolidated revenue fund.

“DIVISION III

TRANSITIONAL AND FINAL PROVISIONS

26. Justices of the peace appointed before 30 June 2004 in accordance with section 158 of the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16), to whom section 162 of that Act was made applicable by their deed of appointment and who are in office on that date become presiding justices of the peace. Justices of the peace referred to in the first paragraph who were on leave without pay from the public service are, from the date of coming into force of this section, deemed to have resigned from their public service position.

27. Persons who became presiding justices of the peace by virtue of section 26 retain the salary they were receiving before the coming into force of section 26, until that salary is equal to the salary to be determined by the Government pursuant to section 175 of the Courts of Justice Act.

They also retain the employment conditions, including the employment benefits and the pension plan, formerly applicable to them. However, during the six months following the coming into force of section 26, they may elect to become members of the pension plan established under the Act respecting the Pension Plan of Management Personnel (R.S.Q., chapter R-12.1) by sending a notice to that effect to the Commission administrative des régimes de retraite et d'assurances established under the Act respecting the Government and Public Employees Retirement Plan (R.S.Q., chapter R-10). 29. Justices of the peace appointed in accordance with section 158 of the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16) before 30 June 2004 to whom section 162 of that Act was not applicable become, on that date, administrative justices of the peace and are deemed to have been appointed in accordance with Division I of Part III.1 of the Courts of Justice Act. They retain their assignments within the Court of Québec, the Superior Court or the municipal court where they exercised their functions, until those assignments are modified.

30. The Government determines, by order, the salary and employment conditions of presiding justices of the peace appointed on or after 30 June 2004, including their employment benefits other than the pension plan. The order remains applicable until the first order is made under section 175 of the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16) enacted by section 1.

31. The sums required for the purposes of section 30 and, as of the 2004-2005 fiscal year, for the purposes of section 27 are taken out of the consolidated revenue fund.

33. Until the coming into force of the regulation to be made by the Government under section 163 of the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16) concerning the selection procedure for persons who are apt for appointment as presiding justices of the peace, presiding justices of the peace are selected in accordance with the Regulation respecting the procedure for the selection of persons apt for appointment as judges (R.R.Q., 1981, chapter T-16, r.5), which regulation, except sections 2, 3, 6, 9, 10, 15, 16, 22, 24 and 25, applies with the necessary modifications and subject to the following provisions:

(1) The Minister of Justice shall publish one or more notices in a Québec-wide, regional or local newspaper or in the journal of the Barreau du Québec, inviting interested persons to apply for the position of presiding justice of the peace.

The notice must include

(a) a brief description of the powers and functions of a presiding justice of the peace;

(b) the statement that presiding justices of the peace are required to provide, without interruption, the telephone appearance service referred to in section 174 of the Courts of Justice Act;

(c) the number of positions available and the place where the presiding justice of the peace will be required to reside;

(d) the application deadline and the address to which applications must be sent.

(2) The Minister is not required to publish a new notice as long as a list kept under section 23 of the regulation mentioned above contains names of persons declared apt for appointment as presiding justices of the peace in the place where, according to the notice described in paragraph 1 of this section, the presiding justice of the peace is required to reside.

(3) The Minister of Justice forms a selection committee whenever necessary.

(4) A selection committee is made up of three persons appointed by the Minister as follows:

(a) a judge of the Court of Québec, recommended by the chief judge of that court, who acts as chair;

(b) an advocate, after consultation with the Barreau du Québec; and

(c) a person who is neither a judge nor an advocate.

If a member is absent or has withdrawn, the Minister replaces the member with another person appointed in the same manner.

(5) The committee analyzes the applications and interviews the candidates who, in its opinion, have legal experience relevant to the exercise of the powers and functions of a presiding justice of the peace.

The committee indicates in its report to the Minister if it does not interview a candidate and gives reasons.

(6) The chair informs the candidates of the date and place of their interview with the committee.

The chair notifies the other candidates of the fact that they have not been selected for an interview.

(7) In addition to applying the selection criteria determined in the regulation mentioned above, the committee evaluates readiness of candidates to be available for work when needed.

(8) A declaration of aptitude is valid until the coming into force of the new regulation referred to above or not later than the expiry of a period of 12 months after the publication of the notice for the position applied for.

34. Presiding justices of the peace remain subject to the judicial code of ethics, approved by Order in Council 643-82 dated 17 March 1982, until the Conseil de la magistrature adopts special provisions for them, if it considers it expedient.

35. Persons who, by virtue of sections 26 and 29, become presiding or administrative justices of the peace must make the oath provided for in Schedule II to the Courts of Justice Act (R.S.Q., chapter T-16) within 30 days after the coming into force of this section.

36. This Act comes into force on 30 June 2004, except sections 174 to 177, the second paragraph of section 178 and section 179 of the Courts of Justice Act, enacted by section 1, and sections 2 to 8 of this Act, which come into force on the date or dates to be set by the Government.
